

STUDENTS FOR A SUSTAINABLE STANFORD

Week of October 19, 2009

Climate Action Week Highlights:

We're tabling in the dining halls to talk about the connection between individual food choices and climate change. Sign up to help 5-7PM any day this week:
http://spreadsheets.google.com/cc?key=0Aodn0oNP_qoLdFRCb1o5NUtpMG5KS0pGVXoxR0VCS0E&hl=en

Climate Change Tag in the Oval Saturday at 1PM! Wear a red or blue shirt and bring at least two friends. We'll be submitting photos to 350.org.

The GLC is organizing a photo op for 350.org. Meet at the Oval at 5PM Friday.

Green Fund Application Deadline Extended to Oct. 30th. $30,000 is available for student sustainability projects. Send administrative questions to Elsa (elsab@) and other questions to Elaine (change@) or John (johnmk@). Also see greenfund.stanford.edu.

Stanford Energy and Climate Plan Passed Check out the press release.
<http://news.stanford.edu/news/2009/october19/stanford-carbon-footprint-101909.html>

The Environmental Justice Group focuses on how people and the environment affect each other. Projects include EPA 101, which brings in speakers from East Palo Alto. Contact Durell (durellc@) or environmental-justice@ to get involved.

UN Film Festival The free-with-SUID festival is going on this week at the Aquarius Theater in Palo Alto and in Annenberg Auditorium. See the schedule of films at www.unaff.org.

The Woods Institute is celebrating their fifth anniversary this Wednesday with a symposium on their work over the past five years. (2-5PM Hewlett 200)

Congratulations to Group R for acquiring a one-acre plot to try out worm composting instead of traditional fertilizers.

Harvest Festival The Campus Garden Initiative will be kicking it off Nov. 6 with a harvest festival in White Plaza.

Farmers' Market Trip Meet at 10:30AM Saturday at the Oval. Come to EBF after at 11:30 to make displays. To contact/find Eli, call 202-415-3290.

SSS Blog and Facebook Page Become an SSS fan on Facebook, and post events to the SSS blog, which can be found through our website www.sustainability.stanford.edu.

Sustainer Training Class Next Quarter This class, through the Civil Engineering and Earth Systems Departments, will teach how to make real infrastructural changes.

